"I am pleased to welcome Paul to the marketing operation of our companies," stated Mr. Woudstra. "He has an extraordinary background in life and health insurance, property and casualty insurance, direct response marketing, broker-dealer operations, turnarounds, start-ups and Internet technology. He is truly gifted in his abilities and will use his experience to allow our organization to grow internally by having a well-coordinated marketing operation executing against one overriding marketing strategy."

In May 1998, Mr. Patsis joined Farmers as President and CEO of Farmers Life. He was promoted to Executive Vice President, Farmers Group, Inc., effective January 2007. From 1989 until May 1998 Mr. Patsis served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Marketing One Incorporated. Prior to joining Marketing One Inc., Mr. Patsis served as President of Colonial Penn Life and Annuity Company. He also served in various roles with INA/Cigna in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

A native of New Jersey, Mr. Patsis received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Villanova University, Villanova, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Patsis and his wife Jean, have two children. They will relocate to Los Angeles from Mercer Island, Washington.
