"What a great way to help our community with such a basic need. We know that with spring break coming up, many kids will be at home with limited resources," said Kristen Comer, Farmers HelpPoint® Communication Manager. "Our employees and agents always come through when called upon to assist in a food drive."

Donations went to the Olathe Food Pantry as well as The Salvation Army. Additional donations will be made to the Olathe Community Food Pantry on Friday, February 25th. Farmers Insurance is the largest private employer in Olathe.

Farmers Insurance Group of Companies is the country's 3rd largest insurer of both personal lines passenger automobile and homeowners insurance, and also provides a wide range of other insurance and financial services products.
