William Walrath, Farmers Michigan State Executive Director said the move is aligned with our FarmersFuture 2020 strategy in the state. "In addition to expense management, the new offices will create added benefits such as a new 50 person training facility and technologically enhanced working conditions for our employees in the Detroit metropolitan area."

Walrath said the move will also help Farmers create a better and more sustainable marketplace to grow. "Having all of our property and casualty units working together will allow us to develop talent, quickly identify trends in the marketplace, and work together on many Michigan specific issues that we encounter that will benefit our customers. This will allow us to continue to give our Michigan customers the first rate service they have come to expect from Farmers."

The Michigan State Office move will begin February 21st. Should anyone need to contact the State office, please utilize the email address at: More.Michigan.Auto@farmersinsurance.com. It is checked for messages daily. The new Main Phone Number is (248) 488-8201 and will be available on February 28th.
