

Farmers Insurance Monitors Tropical Storm Arthur First Named Storm of the 2014 Hurricane Season

LOS ANGELES, July 2, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Farmers Insurance is closely monitoring Tropical Storm Arthur currently located off the coast of Florida. While Florida, South Carolina and North Carolina brace for a potential hurricane off the eastern seaboard, Farmers Insurance Catastrophe claims representatives, agents, other personnel and resources are already engaged and prepared to help customers who may suffer damage from these storm systems.

Farmers Chief Claims Officer Keith Daly emphasized that the Farmers catastrophe claims teams are on standby and prepared to deploy where needed. "Our dedicated catastrophe professionals are currently monitoring the weather systems and keeping a close eye on Arthur from their centralized location in Olathe, Kan.," stated Daly. "Farmers takes great pride in our ability to proactively monitor and prepare for potential disasters, allowing us the opportunity to assist customers immediately."

Customers can follow the Farmers Insurance catastrophe response by following @farmersresponse on Twitter, by visiting the Farmers Facebook page or by going to the Farmers website: www.farmers.com.

Daly advises that all Farmers customers who suffer damage from severe weather and wish to file a claim should do so by contacting their agent, visiting www.farmers.com, or by calling the 24-hour claims center.

Farmers, Foremost and 21st Century Claims Contact Center number: 1- 800-435-7764.

Bristol West customers can call 1-800-274-7865 for immediate assistance.

Customers who would prefer Spanish-language claims: 877-RECLAMO (877-732-5266).
