

Farmers Insurance Names Daly City, California Agent, Patrick Cayabyab to Prestigious Presidents Council

Daly City, California (May 15, 2014) - Farmers Insurance agent Patrick Cayabyab has been named to the national insurer's Presidents Council, the Los Angeles-based insurance company recently announced. Membership in Presidents Council is the company's most elite honor for the top one-percent of agents and district managers.

"On behalf of the thousands of Farmers agents, district managers and employees, I want to congratulate Patrick Cayabyab on being selected as a member of the prestigious Presidents Council," said Roy Smith, president of agent distribution for Farmers Insurance. "Patrick has clearly demonstrated that he is among the best agents in the country and we sincerely appreciate all that he does for our customers and our organization."

The elite group of agents and district managers who make up Presidents Council are leaders in their communities, mentors to other agents and district managers, and exemplary business owners. They were selected on the basis of a number of criteria, including their excellence in providing best in class service, their consistent top-ranked business performance and their commitment to furthering the goals and ideals of the Farmers organization. As members of the Presidents Council, Cayabyab and his fellow Council members will serve as direct liaisons with their peers across the country and act as an important sounding board to the leadership of the national insurer.

"It truly is an honor to be named to Presidents Council," said Cayabyab. "I look forward to sharing my experience and knowledge with the Farmers leadership and working with my fellow agents across the country to provide the organization with our insights."
