

More Severe Weather Strikes the Central U.S.; Farmers Insurance® Deploys Additional Resources in Response

LOS ANGELES, April 10, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- With harsh weather continuing to pummel large portions of the central United States, Farmers Insurance® has deployed additional specially-trained Catastrophe Claims Team members to provide front-line assistance to affected customers.

Farmers Insurance estimates that the series of storm systems which have moved across multiple states including Alabama, Kentucky, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Texas, will generate approximately $175 million in covered losses. Farmers® expects more claims to be filed over the next few weeks and encourages customers to use the online filing system, www.farmers.com/catastrophe/alert/, when possible to prevent lengthy call times.

Farmers Insurance encourages customers to continue to monitor the weather and prepare for potential future storms. If a storm is imminent, Farmers advises residents to try to place cars in covered areas, bring in breakable items from outside, especially things like glass table tops, and to remain vigilant for potential tornado watches or warnings.
