

Farmers Insurance® Honors San Diego Police Officer Deborah Ganley with Inaugural Hometown Hero Award

Farmers®, The Century Club and the San Diego Police Department honor Officer Ganley for over 18 years of service and dedication to the Farmers Insurance Open®

LA JOLLA, Calif., Jan. 8, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Farmers Insurance, a leading insurer group with a longstanding commitment to first responders, today honored San Diego Police Officer Deborah Ganley with the inaugural Farmers Insurance Hometown Hero Award in a ceremony at the Farmers Insurance Open Preview Day at the historic Torrey Pines Golf Course.

Known as "Officer Debbie," Ganley has served on the force for more than 18 years working on special events, such as the Farmers Insurance Open where she's been the lead police officer at Torrey Pines since 2002. Officer Ganley's passion for local events has prompted her appointment as lead officer for other notable San Diego events including the Holiday Bowl Parade, 2008 U.S. Open and more.

"I am truly honored to receive the Farmers Insurance Hometown Hero Award. I've had the tremendous opportunity to work with dedicated officers and other first responders who have served at the tournament over the last few decades, and I want to thank them for making this an unforgettable experience," said Officer Ganley. "I'm grateful to represent the San Diego Police Department and for organizations like Farmers Insurance and The Century Club who help support first responders."

Farmers presented Officer Ganley, who is retiring later this year, with a replica of the surfboard trophy the winner of Farmers Insurance Open receives as part of the Hometown Hero Award ceremony.

"We're thrilled to present 'Officer Debbie' with the inaugural Farmers Insurance Hometown Hero Award as a way to thank her for everything she's done at the Farmers Insurance Open and throughout the San Diego community," said Leesa Eichberger, Head of Brand Marketing for Farmers. "This award is the first of many ways Farmers will be recognizing first responders during this year's tournament. We want to say 'thank you' to those who dedicate their lives to serving their communities, and we'd like to extend an extra special thank you to 'Officer Debbie.'"

This year's Farmers Insurance Open will host more than 1,000 first responders as part of its celebration of those who continue to selflessly serve our communities. The 14th hole on the South Course will feature a special pin flag, tee signage and tee markers dedicated to first responders, and Farmers will donate $1,000 to the San Diego Fire Rescue and Police Foundations for each birdie made at the 14th hole during competition rounds.

Guests will also have a chance to say "thank you" with a special Farmers Insurance Open hat designed to honor first responders. Proceeds from the hat sales, which will be available for purchase at the Torrey Pines Pro Shop, will be donated to local first responder nonprofits such as the San Diego Fire Rescue Foundation and San Diego Police Foundation.
